KEEP HIM QUIET.

The trial of Guitau, the cowardly assassin, is now the local attraction in Washington, but the people do not seem to take much concern in the details. They await the verdict alone, with interest. The average American begins to look upon Guitau as unworthy of hatred, and most of them regard the trial merely as a necessary legal form, which is a preparation for his death.

Guitau will expiate his crime, and it may turn out that a part of the unthinking mass may yet take the disagreeable duty from the hands of the law.

We hope this may not be done. We hope also that the intense desire of decency and the popular desire, that Judge Cox will cure his disgusting itch for self-exhibition, and let him understand that the American people represent the "Daisy" as far as his present trial is concerned.

The assassin's conduct, smacks of sanity, and his defense of insanity. Whatever may be the state of his mind, justice does not demand that he be permitted daily to insult the people who are protecting his worthless life.

DEPOSITORS AND DIRECTORS.

The paragraph about his spirit of the pious cashier, when he said the late Baldwin of Newark, say: "I am guilty, and am willing to go to State's Prison. The depositors can go to the poor house."

The telegram to-day inform us that depositors in the Newark Bank have determined to prosecute the Directors. This is a righteous decision. They should not only send that sanctimonious fraud Baldwin behind the prison bars, but every long-faced Director in high standing, who has allowed their money to be stolen for years, should be branded.

There has been entirely too much of this "pious high standing" for years, and sudden confessions when some body else's money is gone.

Let such men be proscribed and punished on an equality with the tramp who steals a loaf of bread. Even that is too much allowance for they are his inferiors.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is not known why Judge Sawyer, usually so severe, gave John McGuire, the mail robber, only ten years in the penitentiary. It must have been on account of the offender's age and his little family, made miserable enough by this term of ignominious imprisonment.—Bureau Sentinel.

Judge Sawyer sentenced the above individual to two years, instead of ten.

WESTERN TELEGRAMS.

Ocean and Railroad Matters.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18. It was reported yesterday that Leonard Stanford had again sailed for England with the intention of establishing a line of steamers between Liverpool and the Gulf of Mexico, to connect with the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Crocker, President of the road, says the report, so far as it relates to Mr. Stanford's return to England, is not true. Stanford is lying sick in Paris. He says there will be a line of steamers to connect with the road as stated, and that if some other party does not establish one the Company will.

As to whether it was true that the emigrant fare from Liverpool to San Francisco would be placed as low as $35, Crocker said with a smile: "We are going to bring emigrants from Europe, and rates will be as figures that will bring them."

San Francisco Needs a Signal Station.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 18. Lieutenant O. E. Kelbourne, now making a tour of inspection of the Pacific coast signal office, says it is the wish of Chief Signal Officer Hazen to have established in San Francisco a main signal office prepared to forecast the weather. Lieutenant Kelbourne says the marked meteorological variations of this coast are repeated failures in the transmission of reports to and from Washington and have rendered it an urgent necessity for San Francisco to make her own predictions and not depend upon the bureau at Washington. The necessity, he adds, is felt not only by the western but also eastern folks, for during rainy weather meteorological conditions and variations are watched with great interest in those sections of country.

EASTERN.

The Assassin's Trial.

WASHINGTON, November 18. Long before the hour of opening the Criminal Court, several hundred ladies and gentlemen assembled in the eastern corridors and patiently awaited admission to the Court-room. At 9 o'clock the prison van drove up and Guitau, clutching a large bundle of papers in his mangled hands, shuffled hurriedly into the building. There was a marked absence of noisy demonstrations on the part of bystanders, yet Guitau plainly betrayed the fear of sudden violence, which always marks his movements whenever he deems himself at all exposed to danger.

He was taken to the prisoners' room and devoted himself to reading papers. At 9:30 the seats reserved for the general public were entirely filled, four-fifths of them being occupied by ladies. Upon the opening of court, Scoville requested the Court to take some measure to prevent the prisoner from giving to the public his unauthorized communications, and also to prevent annoying interruptions by the prisoner in the Court-room.

ANOTHER SCENE.

This brought on a scene, during which Guitau demanded that Scoville should go out of the case; that he was no criminal lawyer, and had no sense. That he talked one thing to him in private, and another in public. Scoville tried to explain to the Court, but Guitau became more and more excited, and addressed himself alternately to the Court and to Scoville and the bailiffs who were endeavoring to keep him quiet.

To the Court he said: "I represent myself, your honor, and I shall do as I please about counsel;" then, turning to Scoville, "You have no capacity, and I won't have you manage my case;" then, turning to the bailiffs, he shouted, "You mind your business, you confounded fools; you haven't got any sense."

The Court again stated to the prisoner in decided terms that he would order his removal and proceed in his absence. To this Guitau shouted excitedly: "I don't care if you do. The Court in banc will reverse you, and I will get a trial. You have got no right to remove me." The Court replied in terms which seemed to convince Guitau of their sincerity: "Very well, if you persist in any more disturbance I shall do so, and there are precedents in this Court for such rulings."

Wm. Sraford, wagon driver, sworn—Saw firing; could not see the President, but distinctly saw Guitau aim and fire and saw his arrest.

He was questioned by Scoville at some length, particularly as to how Guitau wore his hat on that occasion.

Guitau here put on his hat, remarking: "They are all mistaken on that hat business. This is the way I wear my hat."

Witness—Well, perhaps that is the way he had it on, only not quite so far back.

R. Scott, special officer on duty at depot, sworn—Was about the gate when the first shot was fired. At the second shot I ran in at the gate and across the hall, and saw Parke holding a man. It was Guitau. Guitau said: "I will go to jail, but I want General Sherman to have this letter." I assisted in taking prisoner to the police station. On the way Guitau said: "I'm a Stalwart, and Arthur is now President."

THE DEADLY WEAPON.

Witness then identified the pistol as the one taken from the prisoner. There was a noticeable stir in the Court-room and a straining of necks in every part of the room as the whisper went round, "There is the weapon that killed President Garfield."

Edmond Dubarry witnessed the shooting and described it. He said Guitau had a bad face. Scoville desired this portion of the evidence be stricken out unless witness would state in what particular feature prisoner had a bad face. Witness insisted that was his impression from the prisoner's general appearance.

Scoville, quite sharply—"I don't want any opinions from you. Have you ever expressed an opinion on this case?"

Witness—"I have, sir, frequently."

Scoville—"Have you ever said you thought the prisoner ought to be hung?"

Witness, in a most emphatic manner—"I have, most decidedly."

Patrick Kearney, policeman, testified—Soon after the President passed into the Depot I heard shots, and rushing in I seized a man who was running out. The man said: "I want General Sherman to have these papers." Witness said: "There were two shots and you are running from the direction. I will arrest you."

a few questions. He comes nearer the truth than any of them." Whispers between Scoville and Guitau ensued when the former asked witness: "Were you at all excited when you made the arrest?" Witness began a repetition, when Guitau interrupted, saying: "You were the first man who took hold of me Mr. officer. I had not moved. I had just put my pistol up." A colloquy then ensued between Guitau and witness which created some amusement, but was not interrupted by the Court. The witness admitted that Guitau did not try to run away.

Upon reassembling, Guitau addressed the Court with, "Your honor, Judge Magruder of Maryland has offered to assist me in this trial, and I want to invite him to meet me here Monday morning. I don't know if Scoville knows about it, but I want him in the case. Scoville is doing splendidly, but I want him to have assistance. This is the only way I can get anything before the public, to announce it in Court."

Aquilla Barton, colored hack-driver, testified to Guitau's wish to hire a hack. Answering a question witness said, "I think he looks a little thinner than he did." Guitau, who appeared both interested and amused at the witness, said, "Just here it might be well to say, I have had to-day the first square meal since the 2nd of July." This sally raised a laugh, in which Guitau joined heartily.

Postal Decision.

WASHINGTON, November 18. Assistant Postmaster-General Hutton has decided that publishers, in addition to the name and address of the person to whom newspapers and magazines are to be sent, index figures of the subscription book, printed title of publication, printed name and address of publisher or news agent and written or printed words or figures in dictating date of expiration of subscription, publishers may also print on the wrapper a request if the matter is not called for in a limited time, that it be sent to any one of the class of persons named. This is believed to be in aid of the purpose contemplated by the statute in permitting the sending of sample copies to obtain subscribers.

The Arctic Search.

NEW YORK, November 18. Commander J. H. Cheyne, of the Royal Navy, and an officer on three Franklin search expeditions, in a lecture delivered last night on "Baffled, Not Battered; or, Discovery of the North Pole Practicable," stated that in company with Lieutenant Schwatka he hoped to start for the pole next spring. He advocated the use of balloons when at the end of the journey, saying that after it passed the pole it might land in Russia, and the discovery could be made known to the world in one week after accomplishment.

Cable From Brazil to America.

NEW YORK, November 18. Sixteen hundred miles of submarine cable intended for the Central and South American Telegraph Co., was shipped from London. The remainder will be shipped in February next. It is expected that this country and Mexico will be in direct telegraphic communication with Peru and Brazil in June next.

Killed a Man Instead of a Girl.

WOODLAND, November 18. At one o'clock this morning a gambler, known as Bodie Smith, shot and, it is thought, mortally wounded M. F. Patterson in a house of ill-fame. Smith secured a horse and made his escape. The officers are in pursuit. The men had no quarrel, and it is said Smith intended to shoot a girl instead of Patterson.

Instructions to Inspectors.

WASHINGTON, November 18. Secretary Folger has issued a circular instructing inspectors of lake and coast steamers to observe that every requirement for equipment is provided, and that the rules and regulations of the Board of Supervising Inspectors is observed.

West Virginia Strikers.

CANNEWTON, November 18. There is likely to be trouble here as three hundred and fifty striking miners refuse to let the others work. The militia is on the ground and more are coming.

Kirkwood on Railroads.

WASHINGTON, November 18. Secretary Kirkwood's supplementary report treats of railways, and says: During the last fiscal year about 6,000 miles of subsidized and land grant railroads, subject to supervision of the Bureau, have been examined and their books, especially those of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific roads, carefully compared with reports rendered by the companies. He says, although the past severe and protracted winter was accompanied by unusual floods and storms, which destroyed much property and increased the expenditures for maintenance, it was noticeable that the improvements in the property of roads in which the Government has a direct interest have been made, and in general the reports rendered indicate a marked increase in their business. The gross and net earnings of the Pacific roads for the year ending June 30, 1881, are as follows: Union Pacific—Gross earnings, $22,745,732; operating expenses, $11,474,910; net earnings, $11,270,822; total number of miles operated, 1,819. Central Pacific—Gross earnings, $22,893,344; operating expenses and rentals, $13,502,504; net earnings, $9,390,840; average number of miles operated, 3,164. Northern Pacific—Gross earnings, $3,931,803; operating expenses, $1,946,157; net earnings, $885,645; number of miles operated, 754. By the last annual report, the operations of the Texas Pacific road had not been received at the Department. Secretary Kirkwood reports that work on the road is being pushed rapidly forward, and it is anticipated the line will be completed, the trains running to El Paso, on the 1st day of January next. The Secretary suggests that the Thurman Act of May 7, 1879, should be so arranged as to embrace the subsidized portion of the Kansas division of the Union Pacific Railroad.

In the third game Heiser beat in 63 innings, best run, 14; Slosson scored 171, best run, 23. Sexton and Wallace played a very close and exciting game, being even several times; Sexton won in 59 innings, best run 22; Wallace made 191, best run 26. The second game between Schaefer and Gallagher the latter won in 61 innings, best run 25; Schaefer made 187, best run 31.

Bank Depositors in Grief.

NEWARK, N. J., November 18. Depositors with the Mechanics' Bank have determined to prosecute the Directors, and employ Benj. F. Butler and Roger A. Pryor as counsel.

WASHINGTON, November 18.

A private dispatch states that the Pacific National Bank of Boston has closed its doors.

Sweetheart and Phil Thompson.

NEW YORK, November 18. The Times says: Charles H. Raymond, owner of the great Kentucky three-year-old trotting colt Phil Thompson, don't want to put up $5,000 forfeit, but will trot in the spring at Chicago against Mackey's Sweetheart for $10,000 a side.

FOREIGN.

News from France.

PARIS, November 18. The Extreme Left introduced a bill proposing secularization of the property of religious orders and all edifices, seminaries and consistories, and the complete separation of church and State.

A dispatch from Tunis states that General Sausier arrived on the 13th at Djelma.

It is reported that a strong migration of insurgents was repulsed by the northern column, which pursued and captured convoy of 1,000 sheep and 100 camels. French loss insignificant.

London Letter.

LONDON, November 18. Wallenstein won the great Sharp-shire handicap easily by a length and a half.

A dispatch from Berlin says Bismarck, in the Reichstag, looked pale and grayer and more careworn.

The general opinion of the Emperor's speech is that it means peace without and war within.

German Politics.

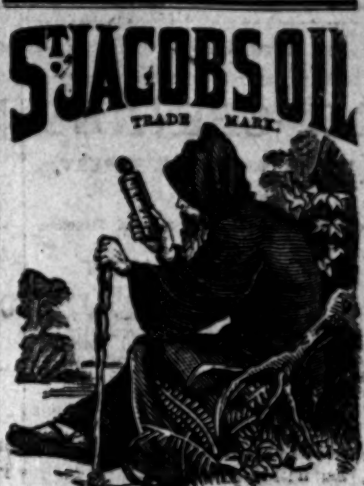

BERLIN, November 18. The Liberals were disappointed at the Emperor utterly ignoring the Liberal majority. The people are astonished that the government has taken this mode of declaring what is considered war to the knife.

The Deputies listened with icy coldness to the Emperor's speech. Not one sentence was applauded.

Daring and Successful Robbery in London.

LONDON, November 18. A most daring burglary and robbery has just been committed at the Hatton Garden branch post-office, and property valued at $60,000 carried off. Hatton Garden is in the centre of the wholesale diamond market of London. Shortly after 4 p. m., when the post-office clerks had just finished dealing with bags of registered letters that were to go out by to-night's mail from the general postoffice. Some thieves entered the office, suddenly blew out the gas, seized the registered letter bags and escaped.

JOTTINGS.

The East-bound overland was an hour and a half late this morning. Ammen's Cough Syrup cures colds, coughs, bronchitis and consumption. The candidate for tar and feathers skipped promptly after reading his Saturday's GAZETTE. Go to J. K. Everett's grocery store, corner Second and Sierra, if you want choice family supplies. Mucilage and Mucilage Stands at Nasby's Bazaar. It was cold enough to-day — 7, 9, 11, 1 and 3 o'clock the mercury was 13, 30, 29, 30, 33. A Lindley is building up an extensive northern trade by strict attention to business, fair dealing and low prices. He keeps every new customer he gets. Multitudes of people who have been in mortal dread of rheumatism, neuralgia and other painful diseases, now rest perfectly easy, knowing full well that St. Jacob's Oil will cure those troublesome ailments without possibility of failure. George E. Perkins is doing a good business in the furniture line at his store at the corner of Virginia and second street. He has secured the services of a thorough cabinet-maker and is now prepared to do all kinds of repairing on short notice. In the name of suffering humanity we recommend physicians to try Ammen's Cough Syrup, then they will prescribe it for their patients, who are troubled with coughs, colds and diseases for which it is recommended. Doctors who are opposed to patent medicines prescribe this remedy; the druggist simply changes the contents into another bottle and the patient is none the wiser, while the physician gets credit for the cure, which always follows where a cure is possible. Ask your druggist to show you a large bottle.

PERSONALS.

D. B. Merry, the well-known surveyor, has returned to Eureka. R. H. F. Varrel, District Attorney Plumas county, Cal., is at the Golden Eagle. Ben Robde, George Becker's old clerk, has retired from the malt line and gone to railroading. W. W. Skinner, County Surveyor, started yesterday for Fish Lake, near the southern line, on a survey. Major John Hancock Dennis is not a candidate for Governor, and says he will not be, if he keeps his health. Dr. W. H. Fiske and wife, of Quincy, Cal., en route for San Francisco, arrived on the northern stage at 8 A. M. to-day. They thought it rather cool weather for night staging. Nevada & Oregon. Colonel Thomas Moore went to New York yesterday to be absent a few weeks. Five carloads of ties arrived this morning and will be pushed to the front. The work of tracklaying is going forward. About three miles was laid last week. The work will be pushed regardless of storms, the orders being not to stop for less than four feet of snow. Grading is still going on at the front. A Railroad at Sheridan's Sale. The Sheriff of Nye county advertises that he will sell the Nevada Southern Railroad, First Division, at public auction on the 9th day of December, to satisfy a judgement in favor of W. W. Bishop and Geo. M. Sabin, for $2,000, together with interest and costs.

A Testament Writer's Opinion.

The eminent author, Prof. A. O. Kendrick, D. D., LL. D., who is professor of Hebrew, Latin and Greek in the University of Rochester, and was one of the revisers of the New Testament, in general conversation with a number of gentlemen, a short time since, said: "I have received from the use of Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure very marked benefit, and I can most cordially recommend it to others."

Rulers by Divine Right.

The Chronicle tells why the word obey found its way into the marriage ceremony: Yesterday, on Taylor street just below D, there was a contest which showed that nature meant the human male to boss the female species. Two small school-boys were engaged in a snow battle with eight girls—most of them bigger than the boys, yet the browed army of two in less than five minutes had rolled the petticoated eight in the snow, rubbed their faces and put them to inglorious, quailing flight.

A WRONGED WOMAN.

Described by a "Friend," She Follows Him Across the Continent—A Man and Woman's We Know.

"Poor race of men," said the pitying spirit. "Dearie we pay for your primal fall. Some fellows of Eden ye still inherit. But the trail of the serpent is over them all."

Yesterday's Atlantic express brought to Las Vegas a female passenger—a woman in deep distress. She attracted no particular attention as she alighted from the train, being heavily veiled and modestly attired in a traveling ulsterette. She went to the St. Nicholas hotel and secured a room, but did not enter her name on the desk register. Shortly after her arrival she called at the Optic editorial rooms and asked for information concerning the whereabouts of

HARRY WARD, OF BODIE.

California, whom she had learned was in Las Vegas a few days since. The Optic man remembered the name, and by reference to the files it was learned that Ward was arrested on October 26th, under the name of Clark, supposed by officers to be an escaped convict named Pemberton. Clark (so-called) turned out to be the young man, and on October 27th he was released. On the 28th he left Las Vegas, ticketed for Kansas City. All these facts were told the lady, who appeared deeply agitated, and obtaining a promise from the reporter to learn more about the case, she left the office and returned to the hotel. The reporter having the case in hand went to work and learned all that could be obtained concerning the man named Ward and his present address.

WHO IS SHE?

This morning the reporter called upon the lady at the St. Nicholas parlors. She stated that her name was Miss Pedro. In broken English she told a tale as interesting as a French novel. Born in the city of Lima, Peru, South America, she was reared in the luxurious surroundings of the wealthy of that tropical city. She married a rich merchant and lived happily. Four years ago, at the death of her husband, she left her sunny home and sailed for San Francisco. The new mining town of Bodie, up in the mountains, was attracting a great deal of attention, and thither she went. She became acquainted with Ward, a furniture dealer as a "friend." Here the romance is jumbled together, and the veil of charity must be dropped.

THE MISSING MAN.

The next chapter opens under cloudy auspices. A period of nearly four years has elapsed, and the month of October has come. The furniture dealer is missing. He was heard from at Las Vegas, and the fair Peruvian, feeling deeply the sting of wounded love, takes up the trail, and yesterday arrived in this city, only to find that the game had flown. In the most emphatic manner and with flashing eyes, "Miss" Pedro told the reporter this morning that she would follow Ward to the end. She was compelled to pay over $100 for passage to Las Vegas and finds herself nearly out of means. She pawned her jewelry to-day, and if her trunk comes on the next train, she will continue her trip to Kansas City.

While Miss Pedro feels deeply wounded at heart she characterizes Ward as a good man and states that she believes he will be true to her and will treat her warmly when they meet in Missouri.—Las Vegas Optic.

Our Neighbors Taxes.

Californians are groaning under the rates of their taxation. They have come to the scratch as follows: Amador $2 35, Butte $1 60, Calaveras $2 50, Colusa $1 40, Contra Costa $1 70, Fresno $1 70, Kern $2 60, Mariposa $3, Merced $3, Monterey $1 60, Mono $3, Napa $3, Placer $1 40, Stanislaus $1 32, Sacramento $1 70, San Joaquin $1 30, Sutter $1 62, Santa Clara $1 50, Santa Cruz $2, Sonoma $1 23, Tehama $1 25, Tulare $3, Tuolumne $2 40, Yolo $1 50, Yuba $2 40.

Scene at Verdi.

They stood at the gate beneath the starlight in a few hours he would be whisked away across the prairies, and she would return alone to wander wearily and sadly amid scenes endeared by a thousand tender recollections—if it hadn't been that she wasn't that sort of a girl. "One last kiss," he murmured fondly, "one last look—one last word—what shall it be?" She gave him the last kiss, she gave him the last look, and she gave him these last words: "Remember your promise to me not to eat any onions."

He Was in Doubt.

Scene breakfast table. Present father-families (who came in at uncertain hour and has no distinct remembrance as to where he got out of the carriage). A PLEASANT EVENING.

The Odeon Entertainment Given at Mt. St. Mary's Academy in Honor of Bishop Monogue.

The entertainment given by the Sisters and pupils of Mt. St. Mary's Convent last evening, in honor of the Right Reverend Bishop Monogue's first visit to the Convent since his consecration, was a very pleasant affair. The Bishop thought Mother Dolores and her assistants had reason to feel proud of the school and its success. It was very gratifying to him to find the school in so prosperous a condition. The rapid progress made by the pupils was as high a compliment as could be paid the Sister Superior and her corps of assistants.

expressed his surprise and high appreciation of the motives which prompted the reception, and the merit and ability of those who took part therein, and took occasion to remark that he had been in and around Reno when her buildings were small and few in number; had seen the town grow up, and noted her progress with pleasure. Mount St. Mary's was to him one of the brightest features of this place. After congratulating the young ladies on the superior educational advantages within their reach, and the Sisters on their success in the cause of education, the Rt. Rev. Bishop gave the pupils his benediction. Following is

THE PROGRAMME.

Alt; Greeting Chorus, composed for the occasion; Address, in French, Lillie Germalin; Guardian Spirits of Many Lands, young lady pupils; Address, in German, Francis Frey; Comic Duet, M. Alt and K. Biggs; Address, in Spanish, Gervina Hutchison; Our Wishes, seventeen in number, composed for the occasion; Good Night Chorus.

Nevada News.

Many an old house in Gold Hill has been torn down and used for firewood in the past year.

William Armstrong, formerly of the Con. Virginia mill, will be the new Superintendent of the Santiago mill.

The richest ore yet taken out from the Eureka Tunnel was brought down from the mine last evening.—Sentinel 16th.

The owners of the Seventy-six Mine in New York Canyon have a large amount of high grade ore sacked ready to send to the reduction works.

The Tybo Con. Co.'s 20-stamp quartz mill is advertised in the Belmont Courier to be sold, at Sheriff's sale on the 5th day of December, to satisfy a claim of $1,000 in favor of J. C. Ogden.

A new paper is to be started at Lewis, and will be published every Wednesday, to be called the Lewis Weekly Herald. It is expected that the first number will be issued on Wednesday, November 23d.

Work on the E. & C. R. Railroad goes steadily forward. Manager Perley reports sixty teams and eighty men at work, and that the first two sections—two miles—of grading going out of Eureka will be finished within the next four days.

Artesian Water for Humboldt.

Some $10,000 of the stock of the Humboldt Artesian Well Company has been subscribed for. It is estimated that the cost of the well will not exceed $4,000, and probably not more than half that amount, but, according to the Silver State, they want all the capital stock taken before they commence operations, so that in the event of a failure the expense would not fall very heavily on anybody. If the well is a success, of course the stock will be valuable, and the stock will be valuable, and the company will use its machinery in boring other wells.

Tommy Douglas Secures a Prize.

Eureka Leader, 16th. Tommy Douglas has secured the services of Professor Hildebrandt at the Bank Exchange saloon, where the Professor will perform nightly on the piano forte. Professor H. is a well and favorably known musician of San Francisco, and has achieved a reputation on the coast. He is one of the best educated musicians from the famous city of Berlin, and has received very high encomiums from the European press.

A World of Good.
One of the most popular medicines now before the public is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other bitters, as it is not a whiskey or a drink. It is more like the old-fashioned home set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right, try Hop Bitters. —Nevada News.

A Lady's Wish.
"Oh, how I wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," said the friend. "How?" Inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters, that makes pure, rich blood and blooming health. It did for me, as you observe." Read of it.

Hub Punch.
